DESCRIPTION

The Gea Swing Arm Wall Lamp features a unique blend of modern design and classic charm. The intricate detailing and delicate curves of the iron frame add an element of artistry to the overall aesthetic. Combined with the soft glow emitted from the lampshade, it creates a captivating ambiance and a warm, welcoming atmosphere.

The lampshade, made of high-quality materials such as glass, diffuses the light beautifully, casting a gentle and soothing illumination. Whether used as ambient lighting or as a focal point in a specific area, the Gea Swing Arm Wall Lamp creates a captivating visual effect and enhances the overall ambiance of the room.

Note: Due to the narrow width of this wall lamp, it is not compatible with the standard American JBOX junction box. This lamp requires a specially sized junction box to ensure a proper fit; otherwise, gaps may occur on both sides.
