DESCRIPTION

With a rough, simple exterior, and an intricate interior, The Seltanica Lamps are hand cast from white High density polystyrene.

"Too often, performative qualities of ornate surfaces are dismissed as 'mere ornament', that is fussy, extraneous symbols of decadence. Yet how much skill and pleasure have we, as designers, lost by renouncing ourselves of the obligation to deploy fields of entangled detail?" The designers explained. Seltanica Lamps are an attempt to restore the potentially powerful relationships between the rough, and the ornate. While the minimal elegance of the lamp's cool exterior thrives on simplicity, the interior's rusticated walls, fleecy and shaggy enough to lose all sense of hard edge, read as soft surfaces.
